   (Suggestions in bullet format to be given below)

* NAAC is the process in which where quality enhancement and quality sustenance of the educational institute is ensured in the transitional phase of the Indian system. The base of any country is associated with its quality of education and human resources developed through education; hence NAAC should be given highest priority in development of education and generation. Our institute is following the path laid by the NAAC, pioneer quality development and sustenance organization and we think that this system is propelling the backward and downtrodden institutes towards development.
